

I support RM-10786 and urge the FCC to adopt it quickly. The ability to send or receive morse code should not be a prerequisite for obtaining an amateur radio license. Morse code should be treated just like any other mode of operation, optional.